

Volunteers for projects in Athens (“Network for children’s rights”)

CULTURE LAB & TRAIBER

Working with mixed groups of refugee, migrant or Greek children ages 6 to 12!

Creative activities: art and crafts, board games, theatrical games, book reading, dancing, music lessons, animation, making soft puppets, exhibitions with photographs, creative writing, intercultural cooking, and many more, also open for your ideas!

Educational activities: language lessons for Greek, English, Farsi, Arabic and teaching for example English through educational games (role games).

In a daily base there are about 25 children attending the activities in Culture LAB and 20 kids the Traiber project. The children are divided in different groups and units (morning and afternoon shifts).

YOUTH CENTER

Working with mixed groups of refugee, migrant or Greek teenagers and young adults ages 13 to 21!

Creative activities: Dancing classes, photography, film projects, creative writing, theater groups, music lessons like drums, guitars, piano and other instruments, singing, book reading groups, arts and crafts, knitting, upcycling groups, supporting the young journalist class, workshops on different topics (for example: first aid, political themes, environmental awareness, digital media, teenage issues, and many more, also open for your ideas!

Educational activities: Language lessons for German, English, Greek, Farsi, Arabic, Spanish, French, Italian, etc.

OTHER PROJECTS

- Participating in groups that distribute food and survival packages to homeless or poor people around Athens.
- Getting to know and network with other projects of the area.

Additional Skills

- High team spirit working in an international working environment.
- Being flexible and comprehensive on changing circumstances/needs of the programs and the different working situation in Greece.
- Motivated to work independent and with your own projects/ideas
- Being political interested
- Having empathy for working with vulnerable groups
- Being able to coordinate and motivate groups (children, teenagers)

Your Profile

You are pedagogue, social worker, artist, digital science, journalist, politic student, or similar educational background related to the work of the projects; you have experience in working with vulnerable groups or children, still studying or are interested in these issues.

Working conditions: working hours 6 hours per day including the implementation of activities, preparation of the space, writing reports, follow up, weekly volunteers meeting and reflexion. Accommodation is provided.

